As we can see from the picture, it is mainly in the color of black and white, and two women are sitting in front of a store, which is full of different framed paintings. On the right side of the picture, the two elderly women talk with each other, and they dress casually; one of them is talking with her body leaning forward, while the other is listening patiently. The rest of the picture is about the store. and it may be a small gallery that sells framed paintings, including portraits and landscape paintings. this reminds me of my own experience of visiting a small gallery with my family, which is full of different kinds of interesting paintings that draw about realistic landscapes or modern buildings, and it also has abstract paintings that are difficult to grasp the idea. We spent a lot of time in that store and paid our attention to seeing every detail of the paintings, and more importantly, we brought our favorite painting at last! In conclusion, this picture is really interesting and helps me get a better understanding of my paintings and reminds me of a lovely memory.

mouths are open, and they look pretty happy. The girl on the left of the picture has long curly yellow hair and white skin. She is wearing a silver necklace and a blue and black shirt. She is about twenty years old and she has a red face. As we can see from the picture, two girls are laughing in the picture. Their mouths are open, and they look pretty happy. The girl on the left of the picture has long curly yellow hair and white skin. She is wearing a silver necklace and a blue and black shirt. She is about twenty years old. and she has a red face. She is imitating the dinosaur with her mouth open. She looks thrilled and energetic. The girl on the right side of the picture is laughing as well. As we can see from the picture, she is holding a crocodile toy in her left hand and wearing a purple sweater. She is pretty young and excited. I guess she is around 20 years old.

The crocodile toy is green, and it is a famous crocodile dentist. The classic CrocodileDentist Game is a super fun and easy-to-learn game. Play a solo round of crocodile dentist or gather with up to four friends for a fun game. With no assembly required, this game is quick and easy to set up, so your little ones can get right to playing. As we can see from the picture, there is an African woman around thirty years old. She is wearing a green turban, and it is quite stylish. Wearing turbans is common among Sikhs, including women.

The headgear also serves as a religious observance, including among Shia Muslims. The turban is a traditional headdress of Sufi scholars. Additionally, turbans have often been worn by nobility, regardless of religious background. They are also sometimes donned to protect hair or as a headwrap for women following cancer treatments. She is wearing a leopard-print suit. As we can see from the picture, she is focusing on making handiwork. She holds a yellow pen in her right hand and a green pen in her left hand. There is a weaving machine in front of her, and she is probably weaving the turban. She looks experienced, and she might do this as a living for more than ten years. This is the fun part of weaving, and with all the beauty and creativity, she can make beautiful clothes and turban.

As we can see from the picture, it is mainly about a tunnel that has doodles on the wall, which are red, white, and yellow. On the right side of the picture, there are many green trees planted near the rail tracks, from which we can assume that these railtracks may not have been used for a long time. The rest of the picture is about the tunnel, which leads to a small footpath that leads to the woods. This reminds me of my own experience that doodles can be very annoying when I am walking in the underground pedestrian walkway, as they are all poor hands, which are mainly just some meaningless symbols and letters in different colors. These doodles can have negative impacts on the appearance of a city. In conclusion, this picture is fascinating and helps me to get a better understanding of doodles.

What I can see from the picture is that there is a little boy lying on a row of fences. Those fences are primarily used on construction sites to prevent pedestrians from walking into sites which involve potential dangers. I can tell that because those fences are painted in black and yellow to make them easily noticeable. However, those fences are in use at the moment as they have been placed in order in the street. I suppose the little boy is having a tough life because he has no proper bed to sleep on, and is possibly homeless, given that it is daytime, but he is lying alone on top of the fence which is not supposed to accommodate people. Hello, quite helpless. I feel deep empathy for him and I really hope that his life can get better.

We can see a graffiti on the wall. The main character is a monster who has an elephant's face and octopus's feet. This picture is very creative yet scary. If such animals exist, they must be very dangerous for humans. I don't think pedestrians like this graffiti.

This picture gives information about the tomb. As we can see from the picture, two gravediggers are working in the yard. The guy on the left side of the picture is digging holes. He is wearing a blue shirt and blue jeans. He is about thirty years old, and has a shovel in his hand. There is a trolley behind him, so he can move all the soil to somewhere else. Another guy is resting at the moment. As we can see from the picture, he is leaning on a tombstone, wearing a green shirt and jeans. He has white hair and white skin. I guess he is around forty years old because he is a little bit choppy. As we can see from the picture, there are more than ten tombstones in the picture. This place is in a mountainous area with plenty of trees and flowers.

As we can see from the picture, two workers are repairing the outer wall of a building. In the middle of the picture, two workers are standing in return to repair the damaged wall on the outside of the building, and one of them is an older man who is wearing a white shirt, the other one is a middle-aged man, and he wears a yellow shirt with blue pants. On the right side of the picture, there is a potted flower on the balcony that has the color of red and purple. On the left side of the picture, there is a white street lamp. Also, from this picture, we see that the building is grey, from which we can assume that this building may have been built for many years, and it is reasonable to have some exterior walls fell off, which need to be repaired. In conclusion, this picture is fascinating and helps me to get a better understanding of building repair.

In what ways can society assist an employee in finding work? 社会可以通过哪些方式帮助雇员找到工作?

What are some of the challenges in doing this?

这样做的一些挑战是什么?

参考答案:

The job crisis is undoubtedly one of the most critical problems for almost all countries. I believe there are many prudent steps that the government can take to reduce the level of unemployment. First and foremost, I think the government should build more learning centers to improve human capital to make the workforce more employable. Entrepreneurship and innovation should also be encouraged to create new products and market demand, which will generate employment opportunities. Lastly, lower employment taxes should also be offered to increase labor demand challenges faced by implementing these measures. I think the main issue here is that it usually takes a long time and a lot of debates among policymakers in some countries to make a sound decision. It will be too slow to make social changes.

In what ways has social media made networking easier or more effective?

社交媒体以何种方式使社交更容易或更有效？

In my opinion, technology has positively affected communication and the way we make relationships and maintain them. Despite some adverse effects, most of us enjoy the positive things technology has brought for us. In the past, the ways of interaction were limited. Unleash your imagination; if you want to speak with your friend, you will have to go directly to his house or send him a mail, which may take a few days to get a response. Nowadays, it is quite easy to interact with your relatives -and even with the government and organizations- either by email, mobiles, chatting, etc. and I think that this has improved relationships and enhanced them. Besides personal communications, official business communications have also become easier. The email campaign offers a good marketing opportunity for business owners, and people can complain about certain things using emails without exposing their identity.

One day I was assigned to complete time-consuming work, reviewing and sorting out all the reports, and then writing a summary. I realized that the reason the process was slow was that I had to work with multiple spreadsheets of data. It would be faster if I could combine the data and then pull reports from the consolidated sheet. I documented the process to demonstrate how it was inefficient and to provide a comparison with the proposed change. I also wrote down what the data needed to look like and how often it needs to be refreshed from the sources after the data is consolidated in one place.

What are some uncertainties in life? And how can people prepare for them?

生活中有哪些不确定因素?人们如何为它们做准备?

参考答案:

We all want to be happy and live a good life. We have lots of ideas about how we want to make this happen, For example, with hard work, we can become whatever we want, but the problem is that life shows something different. Life is quite fragile and uncertain. Circumstances change, things happen beyond our control, and we never know what the next day will bring.

There are extraordinary events, such as terrorist and travel catastrophes. On top of that, some numerous illnesses and diseases can invade our bodies. We might have an unsupportive boss; the economy might go into recession.

In terms of how we can prepare for uncertainties in our life, there is undoubtedly a list of things we can do. Firstly, setting up expectations means that you are setting yourself up for disappointment. Therefore, rather than expect the future, focus on the moment. and know what to do to achieve your goals. Do something specific and learning to achieve your goals rather than sitting and planning all the time.

Secondly, prepare for possibilities by learning about others' experiences and making yourself a list of what may come to you in achieving your specific goal. For instance, you can generate a contingency plan for any uncertainties that can potentially happen and their associated solutions. What you need to do is to ask yourself what worst can happen? Think about and find possible solutions to the problem; keep yourself prepared; it will help to make uncertainty a bit easier for you.

What are reasons that some friendships are long-lasting?

有些友谊能够长久的原因是什么？

参考答案：

All relationships take time and effort to establish and grow. A friendship is a two-way street of patience, endurance, trust, kindness, communication, and compromise. Some individuals have an easier time establishing and maintaining friendships than others. Some of us long for closer friendships or try to figure out why an existing or promising relationship fizzled out. In these cases, we may jump first to judge a friend's behavior, rather than our own. Friendships and relationships are two-way streets and not one party can take all the blame when things go south.

Firstly, it is important to always communicate with your partner or friend how you are feeling and what you are thinking. Your friend or partner cannot read your mind and it is not fair to assume they can read between the lines. There should always be a clear dialogue between both parties.

Secondly, kindness should be practiced on a regular basis and should be the foundation of our thoughts, actions, and words when we are in a relationship.

Last but not least, you must be honest with yourself and with your partner. We must speak openly from the heart and incorporate objectivity into our words.

Describe an older person that you admire. How long have you known them? And why do you look up to them?

描述一个你钦佩的老人。你认识他们多久了？你为什么尊敬他们？

参考答案：

The old person I admire most is my grandfather. To me, he is a hero, an ideal father, a benevolent person, and a man of honor. He is around 75 years old now.

We live in a joint family, and he is still the head of the family. Though he can't manage every aspect of our family due to his age, he is still the decision-maker for our family. I remember him from my early childhood when he used to play chess with me. He taught me many things, including the value of honesty and punctuality. He told me some of his great adventures in his life through stories, and those stories are still inspiring for me.

He is a person of his word. He would not talk much, but when he does, it carries unparalleled weights. He is a benevolent person, as I have seen him helping people in our locality. He was an educated person and a successful father, as all of them are successful professionals and businessmen now. I revere my grandparents for their acute observation and significant decisions. I like him so much that I want to become a person like him.

What are some causes of sleeplessness? How can a person try to combat it?

造成失眠的原因有哪些? 怎么做才能克服失眠?

参考答案:

Well, as far as I know, stress, anxiety, illness, and other sleep disorders such as restless legs syndrome are the most common causes of insomnia. An irregular schedule can also cause insomnia as well as excessive use of alcohol or illicit drugs. Speaking of combating insomnia, I think establishing certain set routines can help. Examples of these routines include going to bed and getting up at the same time everyday, avoiding napping, avoiding caffeine, and nicotine. alcohol, and eating massively late in the day. Exercising regularly, and relaxing during the hour before you go to sleep and creating a comfortable environment suited for sleep can be helpful. Finally, if you still cannot fall asleep, I suggest you do not toss and turn all night. You can get up and read or do something that is not overly stimulating until you feel sleepy again.

Do you believe military service should be compulsory? Give reasons for your answer

你认为服兵役应该是强制性的吗？

给出你的答案的理由。

参考答案：

Yes, I believe military service should be compulsory. Firstly, compulsory military service offers young adults a chance to learn a wide range of skills, morally, psychologically, and physically, which parents may not be able to offer. If teenagers enlist for the army, they will be taught valuable lessons that will be useful to them later on in real life.

Secondly, it creates a strong defensive force. If every single citizen enlists in the military, it allows a country to be able to defend its land and its people adequately. There will also be enough trained soldiers to protect their nation and meet the demands of conflict. In other words, a country that mandates compulsory military service will have sufficient protection at all times

Describe the most beautiful natural scenery you have ever seen. Where did you see it, and who else was with you?

描述你所见过的最美丽的自然风景。你在哪里看到的，还有谁和你在一起？

参考答案：

The most beautiful natural scenery I have ever seen is a natural reserve in my country, which I visited with my family about a few years ago. The place was surrounded by green mountains and forests. There was no ocean in that reserve, but the beautiful lake there was no less impressive and inviting than the ocean. The place looked so beautiful, and the natural smell of the lush green there was so intoxicating that I felt like I could spend the rest of my life there. Besides, the calming effect of the beautiful lake on my mind and body felt like a supernatural experience.

First of all, virtual art galleries can enrich students' learning. Students can visually see what they have learned and get a more accurate idea of an abstract concept. It can also offer savings in terms of reasonable costs because students can save time, money, and effort required when visiting physical exhibitions. Therefore, it is convenient for students to take a tour through the internet to a virtual art gallery. It would also be interesting to have such an experience as it is so different from the real art gallery. As I have never experienced it before, I would try visiting a virtual gallery first and then decide whether it is better than a real one.

Talk about the most difficult aspects of learning.

Which is more difficult: grammar or pronunciation?

What is one aspect of English that is very different from your native language?

What resources were most helpful to you?

谈论英语学习中最困难的方面。

语法和发音哪个更难?

英语的哪一方面与您的母语非常不同?

参考答案:

While learning English, it is pretty difficult to learn grammar rather than pronunciation because English grammar is very different from Chinese, which is my native language. It is not like Spanish and Italian or other European languages that are more similar to each other.

Some may say English pronunciation is also very different from Chinese pronunciation, but I believe that listening and imitating how native English speakers say it can be helpful, and you don't have to sound exactly like a native speaker. Once my pronunciation does not hinder communication, I think I will be fine. As a result. Learning grammar requires more attention to details, especially when dealing with academic writing.

For example, in Chinese, we put every adjective in front of a noun to describe in English, adjectives can be a relative clause or other grammatical structures that can be put behind a noun. Therefore, it is very challenging when our first language interferes with the use of the second language. The most helpful resources would be a large amount of reading followed up by summarizing threading and paraphrasing.

Reading helps to make sure that I am exposed to all kinds of vocabulary and grammar regularly and give content knowledge, which I do not have to come up with when writing. This gives me a chance to focus carefully on my language performance rather than struggling with what idea or content that I am going to present. Later on, teachers may correct mistakes or errors in my summary and paraphrasing, which could help me understand the grammar. I believe this is the best way for me to improve my grammar.

Depression drains your energy, hope, and drive, making it difficult to take the steps that will help you to feel better. Sometimes, just thinking about the things you should do to feel better, like exercising or spending time with friends, can seem exhausting and impossible to put into action.

In order to overcome depression, you have to do things that relax and energize you. This includes following a healthy lifestyle, learning how to manage stress better, setting limits on what you're able to do and scheduling fun activities into your day.

Getting support from others plays an essential role in overcoming depression. On your own, it can be challenging to maintain a healthy perspective and sustain the effort required to beat depression. At the same time. The very nature of depression makes it difficult to reach out for help. When you're depressed, the tendency is to withdraw and isolate so that connecting to even close family members and friends can be tough.

To be honest, there aren't many exciting things going on in my life at the moment, but if I have to talk about it, I would say the weekly coffee date with my best friend is what excites me the most. I look forward to this date so much because my friend and I rarely have a chance to talk on weekdays. Back in school, the two of us were like white on rice: I mean, we were inseparable. I could spend days and nights gossiping with my best friend, and meeting each other was never a problem for us. However, since graduation, both of us are always buried in work, so it gets harder to stay in contact regularly. So now, weekends are the only time we can meet up, and the thought of it never fails to excite me. There are millions of things that I and my bestie can do together. Most of the time, we choose a lovely cafe to sit down and have a chat. On some other occasions, we go shopping or have brunch in a fancy restaurant. What we do doesn't matter, as long as we can see each other. I feel relieved every time I continue my best friend because I know she will always cheer me up and give me some useful advice. All in all, this is one of the things that excites me the most. Thank you for listening.

My cousin came from the US last year and she told me about this day. It falls on the second Sunday of May every year. This day is celebrated with a lot of happiness and enthusiasm. I feel that this culture is interesting because it gives children an opportunity to thank their mothers for all the services they do in raising them. In our country, we don't pay enough attention to Mother's Day.

How long have you had this goal?

How difficult will it be to fulfill it?

参考答案

Different people have different types of short-term goals. Some want to save up some money to buy a luxury car, while others want to travel to a few countries. Well, I also have a short-term goal, and that is to set up a workout routine for doing some daily physical exercise.

Well, I have been carrying this thought inside my head that I would need to work on my physical fitness for almost a year, but I haven't managed to do it yet either because I have been too lazy or have been too busy.

But, time has certainly become a bit more serious about my health and fitness, mainly because I am spending plenty of time at my office, which makes me gain weight. After all, sitting on a chair for a significant part of the way without any physical activity, in the long run, is a recipe for disaster as far. After all, sitting on a chair for a significant part of the way without any physical activity, in the long run, is a recipe for disaster as far as your health is concerned, especially if you do not strictly control your diet.

Besides, my age is also not on my side because the older I become, the more difficult it will get to get rid of the extra weight I gain. At least, my doctor thinks so when he suggests getting rid of my extra weight. Anyway, I know that setting up this workout routine is not going to be easy because I am not exactly a very organized person. Besides, the responsibilities and the current work schedules I have at my job won't exactly allow me to set a fixed workout routine unless I become more aggressive and innovative about it.

In order to set up this workout routine, first, I need to cut my nap time as well as my regular sleep time, if possible. Then I would also need to reduce the time that I sometimes use for socializing purposes with my friends. Besides, I would also need to be more efficient at my work so that I don't have to spend too much time on a specific task or assignment.

Discuss the causes and effects of a company relocating

What can happen to the company's business?

What can happen to the company's employees?

讨论公司搬迁的原因和影响

公司为什么要搬迁？

公司业务会发生什么变化？

公司员工会发生什么？

参考答案：

A company may relocate itself when it has to control its cost. If relocating the company can reduce the cost of rent, especially when the company is facing a crisis in managing its financial status, it will be most likely to relocate. Another reason might be that the company will increase its profits when relocating to the center of its target market. For example, a company may find its customer base mainly in a certain district of the city. Then relocating to this area is likely to increase its sales. A change in location can also lead to an opportunity that doesn't currently exist for the business. However, from the perspective of employees, they are more likely to travel a long distance to commute, so they may find it difficult to maintain a daily routine. It will cause certain problems among employees, but working from home is a good option when managers are experienced in managing such a form of working. Another option would be recruiting new employees from the local area. Still, it will cost too much, and other problems will arise, say that new employees will take time to familiarize themselves and adapt to the company.

What is it called?

Where is it located?

What is the historical significance of the place?

描述一个您知道的历史地点。

参考答案

I love to visit popular places whenever I'm free, and historic places have special appeals to me. I have visited a few historic places, including Machu Picchu in Peru, The Pyramids at Giza, Taj Mahal in India, and the Parthenon in Greece. The historic significance and the grandeur of these places mesmerize me. The place that I would like to talk about today is the Colosseum (also known as Coliseum, or as the Flavian Amphitheatre) which is situated in Rome, Italy. I would like to thank you for the time you have allowed me to talk about it. It is basically an elliptical amphitheater in the center of the city of Rome, which is the largest amphitheater in the world and is made of concrete and stone. The construction of the Colosseum began under emperor Vespasian in 70 AD and was completed under Titus in 80 AD. The Colosseum could hold approximately 50,000 to 80,000 spectators at the time when it was used as an amphitheater. Perhaps it is well-known for its use for the gladiatorial contests and public spectacles, such as mock sea battles, animal hunts executions. re-enactments of many famous battles.

The Colosseum was listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 1980 and was also included among the New Seven Wonders of the World. It is 189 meters long and 156 meters wide, with a base area of 6 acres.

The height of the outer wall is 48 meters. The Colosseum nowadays is one of the major tourist attractions in Rome with thousands of tourists each year paying to view the interior arena. I have heard and seen this famous place a lot and when I witnessed it for the first time. I became speechless. The huge architect. The overwhelming interior and exterior decoration were beyond appreciation. The place kept reminding me of the classical mythological and historical facts I have read and heard about. Visiting this site was like travelling to the past. I would always like to get back to this place due to its prominence in history and incredible appeal.

四、面试口语

1、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

Describe a school activity that you think should be eliminated. How would most students respond if this activity no longer happened? What activity or event do you think should replace it and why?

描述一项您认为应该取消的学校活动。如果这项活动不再发生，

大多数学生会有何反应？您认为什么活动或事件应该取代它？为什么？

参考答案

I personally believe our curriculum is set by professionals and is trustworthy. Therefore, the decision should be up to the research and policymakers. I am satisfied with most of the school activities, and if I have to say what should be eliminated, I would say physical exercise. I am aware that physical exercise is critical to keeping us healthy, both mentally and physically. However, it is unnecessary to be a part of school activity because we have enough time to exercise after school. Schools should focus on academic performance and teaching actual knowledge. If physical exercise is removed, most students will be relieved because it is exhausting to do exercises. After exercising, we are not able to concentrate on other classes because we are tired. I think giving us a nap at noon could better utilize the time allocated to PE so that we can refresh our mind and get going in the afternoon.

2、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

Describe what you think would happen if you could only buy products made in your country. What would be the most difficult things to live without? How would people's lives change?

描述一下如果您只能购买本国制造的产品，您认为会发生什么。

如果没有什么东西，生活中最困难的是什么？人们的生活将会发生怎样的改变？

参考答案

Firstly, I have to say it is a globalized world. There is almost nothing that is purely produced in my country. And if there is, the demands will not be met by the supply. For example, the computer we can use can be produced by a local factory, but some of the computer components have to be bought from other countries. Therefore, this computer is not purely produced in my country. So the topic that I can only buy products made in my country is not possible. If it really happens, then there will surely be an economic recession, and people will lose their jobs. The development and modernization will stagnate, and people will die due to a lack of medicine. The most difficult thing to live without is medicine because most of the highly effective medicine is imported. Without these medicines, people will die. If globalization is reversed. China will go back to at least 30 years ago when people have to focus on agriculture and manufacturing machines that are needed to ensure our basic needs.

3、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

Share a time when you knew a friend was lying to you. How did that experience affect the relationship? What did you learn from the experience that will help you in other friendships?

分享一次你知道朋友在对你撒谎的经历。那次经历如何影响这段关系？你从这段经历中学到了什么，这对你在其他友谊中有何帮助？

参考答案

When you find out that a friend was lying to you, it's a hard fact to accept. The real challenge lies in how you respond once you catch someone in the act. The moment when I learned that my best friend Jack lied to me about the fact that he was going abroad to further his studies, he was already on the plane to America. We promised to go to the same university and company with each other forever. I read the textmessage his mother sent to me again and again, and I couldn't believe that was happening. Till the very last minute, he didn't dare to tell me the truth himself. I was overwhelmed with sadness and happiness at the same time. I was upset, obviously because my best friend was going to leave me. I was definitely going to miss him very much. Without Jack, there would be no one to hang out with. I was glad because he was going to pursue a brighter prospect. That lie broke the relationship. We have never contacted each other since then. I learned that friends should always be honest with each other since a good relationship hinges on trust, and a lie can easily destroy that bond.

4、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

What style of music would you like to learn to perform? Who are your favorite artists who perform this type of music and why? How do you think this music contributes to society?

您想学习演奏什么风格的音乐？您最喜欢演奏此类音乐的艺术家有 哪些？为什么？您认为这种音乐对社会有何贡献？

参考答案

If I were to learn a type of music to perform, it definitely would be classical music. This is because classical music can last for a long period of time. When people hear classical music, many of them will think of "first-class" and "sophistication" because at that time, people who attended music events at theatres were usually the ones of the upper class. Besides... Each piece of classical music has a fascinating story behind it. With the genre of classical music, when people hear this music, they can pinpoint the era of where it came from.

My favorite artists who perform classical music are Mozart and Bach.

When I listen to their masterpieces, I can hear what the music was like back during those times, and it gives me a sense of what the culture was like. In those times, they didn't call it "classical music", it was just their form of music. They have created music that is original, different for our generation and generations to come, and also their music is timeless because no matter what. Classical music will live on.

People nowadays may have different preferences for music, but the fact that everyone has been exposed to classical music since they were young is undeniable. I really appreciate that classical music has been around for such a long period and is still loved by many.

5、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

What are some negative consequences of being too popular? Why do you think that people want to be famous? Is it more important to be kind or to be popular? Explain the reasons for your choice.

太受欢迎会带来哪些负面后果？你认为人们为什么想出名？友善和受欢迎哪个更重要？解释一下你选择的原因。

参考答案

Over the past decades, pursuing popularity has always been one of the ultimate goals in many people's lives. Not only because they want to leave an impressive imprint on the world's history, but also because fame can bring them good fortune. Nevertheless, there are, without a doubt, several adverse effects of being too popular.

First and foremost, too much popularity can potentially interfere with the celebrity's personal life. We can cite a convincing example of China's celebrities; they have to wear sunglasses, hats, and masks to avoid being recognized by their fans in the streets or other public areas when there are no pre-scheduled events that require the public's attention. Most influencers have to use bodyguards and other anti-detection measures to avoid unwanted exposure to their privacy, which makes it rather inconvenient for them to live a normal life.

Apart from that, all celebrities must be extremely wary of their words and behaviors because they have a vast number of followers who look up to them. As a result, they cannot do whatever they want but to act as the exact people that their fans expect them to be.

In a word, to gain extensive popularity, celebrities have to give up something in one form or another.

6、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

Name something your school requires of students that you disagree with. How would your life be improved if it was not required?

How do you think your classmates would respond if it was not required?

说出你不同意的学校对学生的一些要求。如果不要求，你的生活
会如何改善？

如果不要求，你认为你的同学会如何反应？

参考答案

There are many things being banned by school rules and regulations, and dating is the one I disagree with most. If the restriction were to be removed, my life would probably be sweeter during high school, as I would have already tasted the fruit of love. Dating a gorgeous girl would have significantly relieved the heavy burden of studying during those pedestrian schooldays, especially the bleakest final exam periods. If, by any chance, that was a healthy relationship that she and I have maintained along till now, as I am mature enough, we would probably have seen each other's families and planned to take the next step - marriage. Oh my god, there are already all kinds of beautiful scenes of post-marriage life going around in my mind, ha-ha.

In terms of my classmates, I suppose the majority of them would have done the same thing as I have - to temporarily put aside all the frustration resulting from academic performance, and cultivate a relationship with the ones they had been fascinated with for a long time, and enjoy the sweetness of love or learn one thing or two from failure. Either way, those schooldays would be much different, and I bet it is just the change that most of us, as school kids, would have desired.

7、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

Name a famous person you would like to have dinner with. What two questions would you ask them? What would you hope to learn?

说出一位您想与之共进晚餐的名人。你会问他们哪两个问题？

你希望学到什么？

参考答案

I would like to meet Jack Ma, who was the most prosperous businessman in China because he is charming in terms of his humor and inspiring speech. I have watched all of his speeches and am impressed by some of his quotes, including "Today is hard, tomorrow will be worse. But the day after tomorrow there will be sunshine." If I have a chance to have dinner with him, I would ask: what do you think about the investment in the private education sector in terms of making a profit? And what do you think about the involvement of private equity in the education sector in terms of its interference with the essence of education? I ask these two questions mainly because Jack Ma was an English teacher before he launched a business called Alibaba, which makes him the richest person in China. I would like to know his insights into the relationship between education and business. Therefore, I would benefit from his ideas and can better think of my future.

8、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

Do you believe that self-driving vehicles are more safe or less safe than human-operated vehicles? Provide reasons to support your opinion.

您认为自动驾驶车辆比人类驾驶车辆更安全还是更不安全？提供理由来支持你的观点。

参考答案：

One of the biggest questions surrounding self-driving cars isn't a technological one; is it philosophical that self-driving vehicles are safer than human-operated vehicles? It's not something for which there's an easy answer. From my point of view, self-driving vehicles are more reliable than human-operated ones. According to the news report from China Daily, in 2009, Google launched its self-driving project, which focused on saving lives and serving people with disabilities. In a 2014 video, Google showed blind and elderly riders climbing into its custom-designed autonomous vehicles, part of the company's plan to "improve road safety and help lots of people who can't drive.” In these testing videos, its vehicles have been in dozens of crashes but caused no serious injuries due to their safety self-driving system. Now there are dozens of autonomous vehicle companies testing their self-driving vehicles on the streets, but with minimal reports of injury. As there are now more and more vehicle companies joining in the competition, it will help to improve self-driving technology a great deal. So in the near future, we can see more self-driving vehicles on the street whether injury reports.

9、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

What do you think is more important—the group or the individual?
Provide reasons for why you think the way you do.

你认为团体和个人哪个更重要？提供你为什么这样思考的理由。

参考答案：

As far as I am concerned, groups can't exist without individuals, so that the individual is more important. The group should act to preserve the rights of the individual, but the individual should act to further the betterment of the group.

A group is made up of numerous individuals. There was a famous quote that stated, "A country is only as good as the people that live in it." The same concept here too. A mass of individuals makes a group; therefore, the singular individual is way more important than they might think. The individual needs to be strong, or the group will never be strong. The individual has to be able to support themselves in going their own way because if they rely on the group, then they will never live on their own. That's why I believe that the individual is more important than the group.

10、题目参考原文（以 1 到 3 分钟谈论以下主题）

Describe your dream house. What is the most important thing for the house to have? How would that thing make your days easier or more enjoyable?

描述一下你梦想中的房子。房子里最重要的东西是什么？这东西如何让你的一天变得更轻松或更愉快？

参考答案：

Everyone has a dream house in mind where they want to live, and I am no different in that regard. The dream house I want to live in would be a two-story simple house in the middle of my farm surrounded by trees and agricultural land.

I grew up on a farm, and it instilled in me an appreciation for nature. The house I want would have four bedrooms, a living room, and a spacious modern style kitchen. In the backyard, I would like to plant flowers and have an English garden. I would also like to plant seasonal vegetables and fruits as I prefer organic food over market produce.

I want a simple house lacking ostentation. However, there are things that I would want no matter what. For example, I would like a dishwasher as I don't like doing dishes. Also, every room in the house should get sunshine every day, especially my bedroom and living room. Another facility I want is an open bar in the basement where I can entertain friends and guests like a very outgoing person.

In conclusion, my dream house would be one home with four bedrooms in the middle of the farm I grew up in. I prefer that location because I have a deep emotional connection to the land and community there.
